Lost Umbrella: Last Sunday a Gentleman's black umbrella was taken, by mistake, from the front porch and another left in its place. The umbrella belonged to Lucette's late husband and is of great sentimental value. Please can you check your umbrella. Many thanks Lucette 588871

New parishioners: When people move into houses near us in Thorpe Bay it would be good to let them know of the existence of St Augustine's, and so there is a pile of little fliers for you to pick up when needed and pop through a front door when you notice someone move in. Fr J.

Coasters: Thanks to the generosity of Angela and Jay Chen we have St Augustine's coasters in genuine stone with fossils in it, complete with the St Augustine's arms. As ever, they are free, but I would suggest a minimum gift-aided donation of £2.50 each, the proceeds of which will go to church funds. An excellent and rather classy Christmas present! Fr Jonathan

Dear Friends: For the last five years we (there are five/six of us at present) have kept the evening/ night mission runs from Basildon to Shoeburyness! I write to ask if this winter any of you would be willing to help in some way? This could be by physically helping on 'soup runs' or donating a tin of tomato soup, hats, gloves, sleeping bags, blankets etc or a small donation towards takeaway cups/bread rolls and keeping those in need in your prayers. Thanks Fr Chris

Church Calendar 2019: We will be printing a one-off church calendar depicting windows of the church (coloured) and twelve pictures that have graced the church magazine (by kind permission of John Crooks). ## St Augustine's Thorpe Bay

Opening Hymn: 232 For all the saints who from their labors rest

Collect: Almighty and eternal God, you have kindled the flame of love in the hearts of the saints: grant to us the same faith and power of love, that, as we rejoice in their triumphs, we may be sustained by their example and fellowship; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Wisdom 3.1-9

Second Reading: Revelation 21.1-6a

Gradual Hymn: 227 Rejoice in God's saints, today and all days!

Gospel: John 11.32-44 When Mary came where Jesus was and saw him, she knelt at his feet and said to him, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died.' When Jesus saw her weeping, and the Jews who came with her also weeping, he was greatly disturbed in spirit and deeply moved. He said, 'Where have you laid him?' They said to him, 'Lord, come and see.' Jesus began to weep. So the Jews said, 'See how he loved him!' But some of them said, 'Could not he who opened the eyes of the blind man have kept this man from dying?' Then Jesus, again greatly disturbed, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone was lying against it. Jesus said, 'Take away the stone.' Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to him, 'Lord, already there is a stench because he has been dead for four days.' Jesus said to her, 'Did I not tell you that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?' So they took away the stone. And Jesus looked upwards and said, 'Father, I thank you for having heard me. I knew that you always hear me, but I have said this for the sake of the crowd standing here, so that they may believe that you sent me.' When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, 'Lazarus, come out!' The dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with strips of cloth, and his face wrapped in a cloth. Jesus said to them, 'Unbind him, and let him go.'

Offertory Hymn: 214 Disposer supreme, and Judge of the earth

Communion Hymn: 328 The Son of God proclaim

Post-Communion Prayer: Lord of heaven, in this eucharist you have brought us near to an innumerable company of angels and to the spirits of the saints made perfect: as in this food of our earthly pilgrimage we have shared their fellowship, so may we come to share their joy in heaven; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Closing Hymn: O when the saints (see separate sheet)
