

St Augustine's Thorpe Bay
Facemasks in church are now optional –

All Souls: is at 4pm (not 3pm) on Sunday 31st October. There is a list at the back of the church for names to be read out. If you have a loved one you wish to remember, please print their name on the list. Fr Frank

Seafarers: The centre is almost back to normal hours. Last Sunday we were able to deliver 390 knitted items and 5 bottles of aftershave, all of which were very gratefully received. I was asked to convey most sincere thanks from the Managers.

Since the Tilbury Centre was taken over by the Queen Victoria's Seamen's Rest, much renovation has been done and outdoor space acquired and equipped. We were delighted to learn that it is now to be used as the "blueprint" for similar centres in Immingham, Felixstowe and Bristol. Meanwhile, the aim is to provide 2,500 Christmas parcels for ships' crews. If anyone is willing to help with parcel wrapping next month they would be most welcome. Please contact me (588700) for dates if you are interested.

Mhoira

Roundabout: the magazine edition for October and November is now available at the back of the church, please take one. Geoff Mann

Refreshment Rota: We are looking to recommence serving refreshments at the 10 00am Sunday service. Volunteers to assist are needed. A rota is now ready and waiting for your name on the post at the back of the church.

St Augustine's Thorpe Bay

Opening Hymn: 277 All for Jesus, all for Jesus

Collect: Faithful Lord, whose steadfast love never ceases and whose mercies never come to an end: grant us the grace to trust you and to receive the gifts of your love, new every morning, in Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading: Job 23. 1-9, 16 - end

Second Reading: Hebrew 4. 12 - end

Gradual Hymn: 487 Jesus, good above all other

Gospel: Mark 10. 17 – 31 As he was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked him, ‘Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ Jesus said to him, ‘Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: “You shall not murder; You shall not commit adultery; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your father and mother.”’ He said to him, ‘Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth.’ Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, ‘You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.’ When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, ‘How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!’ And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, ‘Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.’ They were greatly astounded and said to one another, ‘Then who can be saved?’ Jesus looked at them and said, ‘For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible.’ Peter began to say to him, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you.’ Jesus said, ‘Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age—houses, brothers and sisters, mothers and children, and fields, with persecutions—and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first.’

Offertory Hymn: 383 Be still, for the presence of the Lord, the Holy One, is here

Communion Hymn: 286 Break thou the bread of life

Post-Communion Prayer: Holy and blessed God, you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son and filled us with your Holy Spirit: may we honour you, not only with our lips but in lives dedicated to the service of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Closing Hymn: 468 I danced in the morning when the world was begun
