

V E day 8th May

Ring out the bells!

Belfry Gossip

On 8th May 1945, bells rang out across Britain as the nation celebrated victory in Europe. Eighty years later, bellringers worldwide are being encouraged to come together and ring to celebrate this occasion and pay tribute to those who made the ultimate sacrifice. It has been suggested that bells are rung at 6.30pm on Thurs 8th May. St Augustine's bells will ring out at that time and possibly earlier in the day too.

Listen out!!

Hilary Woolner